SPRING YULETIDE

Two houndstubs' voices proclaim the spring.
A trifle out of tune,
It still maintains a hearty ring.
And trills a vernal rune.

The houndstubs' voices are loud and clear,
And carols all the day,
Supplying us with springtime cheer
Without a cent to pay.

PIPE CONTRIBUTED

Mayor Thomas M. Russell Gets in on Gifts Sent From Cincinnati to Boys in Camp.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Times-Star contains the following:
"Mayor Galvin starting for Camp Sherman, Ala., Thursday night, will carry with him not only messages of love and pride from Cincinnati to Cincinnati's soldiers, but a wagon load or more of packages for the boys. As soon as it was learned that the mayor was going to the camp to take part in 'Cincinnati day' which is scheduled for Saturday, the mayor was deluged with requests from friends and relatives of the soldiers to carry packages, and he gladly consented for if he had his wish he would go down there in charge of a freight train loaded with the gifts. In the photo the mayor can be seen standing behind a barricade of the gifts and by the way, that is only part of the consignment he is to take. He will have lots of help, though, for many Cincinnatians will be on the journey with the Mayor.

Mayor Galvin also will take a pipe with him, the gift of Mayor Thomas M. Russell of Maysville, Ky. Mayor Russell noticed the large number of packages in the mayor's office, and when informed they were gifts to be distributed among the Cincinnati boys at Camp Sherman, he pulled a pipe from his pocket.

"I have just been buying pipes for my grocery store and they gave me this," he said. "Distribute it among the boys."

"I will fill it and let the boys pass it around for a puff apiece," Mayor Galvin replied.

"STYLE WEEK"

To Be Observed Here March 25 to 31
Decides Trade Extension Division of Chamber of Commerce at Meeting Held Yesterday.

A meeting of the Trade Extension Division was held in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of having a "Style Week" for the merchants this year. The members of this division were unanimous in their approval of the idea and designated the week of March 25 to 31 as "Style Week."

The secretary was instructed to call a meeting next Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 8:30 of all the merchants of the city in the Chamber of Commerce assembly hall, at which time further suggestions will be expected from the merchants and final plans made.

The secretary was instructed to have some window cards printed to be displayed in the merchant's windows participating in the event and advertising style week. All merchants, whether Chamber of Commerce members or not are invited to join in making Style Week a success.

Each merchant will be urged to place some article in the window for the special sale during the week. Prizes will be awarded the best window displays. Merchants are urged to have their stores and windows dressed up for the occasion and the salespeople to wear their best dispositions. Each merchant is urged to carry notice in his advertisement to the effect that March 25 to 31 is "Style Week."

The committee approved the plan to set aside April 20 as "Dollar Day." On this day every merchant will have some article placed on sale at the special price of one dollar.

The merchants and citizens will be asked to observe April 6 as "Patriotic Day." New flags will be hung and the city will do an appearance of loyalty in commemoration of the first anniversary of the entrance of America into the conflict.

Russian Revolutionary troops have struck back at the Germans, who declined to halt their advance when peace was agreed to, and have taken Jamburg, sixty-eight miles south-southwest of Petrograd.

WAR GARDENS

To Boom Here This Summer—War
Garden Division of Chamber of Commerce Holds Important Meeting.

The War Garden Division of the Chamber of Commerce met yesterday morning to make plans for advancing the work of war gardening in Maysville this year.

Mr. C. P. Dieterich was appointed city advisor and his duties shall be to co-operate with the ward advisors in furnishing our gardeners any information they may desire, looking toward increased production of garden stuffs.

The following ward advisors were appointed:

First Ward—Benjamin Cole.
Second Ward—Frank Clarke.
Third Ward—M. J. Flarity.
Fourth Ward—J. B. Russell.
Fifth Ward—J. B. Orr.
Sixth Ward—J. Ed Parker.

These ward advisors will assist their country in giving information to the gardeners of their respective wards. It is expected that some rivalry will exist in that each ward advisor will desire to see his ward the banner ward in war gardening.

The division will in the very near future have a meeting and arrange a list of prizes that will be distributed to the best war gardens and for individual entries at an exhibition to be held toward the close of the season. The division prefer not to make a special subscription for these prizes but suggestion that some of our public spirited citizens or organizations contribute to this fund, at the Chamber of Commerce.

Prof. Caplinger was appointed to arrange some plan, with the co-operation of the teachers, to stimulate the interest of the children in the public schools in the raising of war gardens, and Mr. James Collins for the parochial schools.

Mrs. T. L. Moses was appointed chairman of a committee of the several Parent-Teacher Associations to survey the vacant lot situation and to encourage vacant lot owners to plant war gardens.

The Chamber of Commerce will maintain the War Garden Exchange, where these vacant lots can be listed or obtained.

IS SHOWING 'EM HOW

We have mentioned that Miss Margaret Brown and another are at Fort Meyers, Fla., where they are enjoying the sunny days and delightful season of rest amid palm trees and flowers. Miss Margaret is too active and versatile, however, to remain doing nothing so she is showing the people of Florida how to keep books and to write advertisements. She is succeeding beyond her own expectations. We are glad to hear of her being appreciated, but we are selfish enough to hope that she will not be allured from home, and her legion of friends who appreciate her talent and generally. Miss Margaret is a wonderful writer and her ability along this line would come with metropolitan writers.

BABIES AND POLYGAMY

What happens when a government urges polygamy to raise the birthrate is told by the Rev. Ignatius Kinast, a German who has been touring Germany for six months, and since his return to Switzerland, has been publishing the result of his investigations.

A vigorous campaign is being waged in many districts, he says, by the authorities, with "Bear a Child for the Fatherland" as its slogan.

Never mind just now the effects of this promiscuous mating upon the adults immediately affected and upon society in general. Give your attention to the babies.

"I was credibly informed," says Mr. Kinast, "that in Munich district alone there were 12,000 such illicit marriages, resulting in 18,000 babies since the last two and a half years, while the authorities were not able to save the lives of more than 4,000 babies, so far, begotten by this method!"

Talk about waste! Was ever production of anything on earth conducted with such disregard of plain rules of business efficiency?

Eighteen thousand times human beings have gone through long months of discomfort, of the hard work of carrying a heavy weight with aching muscles, have gone up to the gates of death as surely as any soldiers in the trenches, and they have to show for it—four thousand babies, most of those undernourished, weak, subnormal. Seventy-eight per cent of the total product has been lost.

Babies are curiously exigent little things. They demand food and warmth and care, yes. But that is not enough. Babies in orphan asylums are far more likely to die than babies in homes where there is less of material comfort. It's been proved over and over again that babies demand love if they are to have their full chance to grow.

More than that, babies demand hope. Some one must want them to live! Some one or two people must give them that concentration of faith and hope and love which has so far been found only in the security of permanent marriage. Exceptions there are—uncles or grandfathers or foster parents, who give that. But sheer physical mating without any spiritual urge back of it?

No, Wilhelm Hohenzollern, you are wrong again. Some thing cannot be produced by mechanical efficiency. Babies are one of them. You can get them born that way, but you cannot raise them.

JAPAN AND RUSSIA

Oscar S. Straus, former ambassador to Turkey, comes forward with the interesting proposal that Japan take hold of Russia and straighten her out.

"No greater service could be rendered by the United States," he says, "than to call upon Japan to assume the chief burden of responsibility in aiding the Russian people to reconstruct their dismembered empire, to reconstitute their leaderless and shattered forces and march onward under the safe guarantee of constitutional liberty by the side of her allies to win the war for democracy."

It's a beautiful dream. That would be a great service to the allied cause, unquestionably. But the notion that Japan is capable of such a service is absurd on the face of it. Suppose the Allies should ask Japan to step in and reconstruct Russia. And suppose Japan were so quixotic as to try it. What would Russia have to say about it?

The Japanese themselves have no illusions as to their influence with the Russian. Dr. Iyenaga, chief promoter of Japanese publicity in America, has often pointed out the handicap under which his country has labored throughout the war because of the disinclination of Russia to accept any favors at the hands of the little yellow brother who lately gave her so thorough a licking.

Besides the dislike the Russians feel for the Japs, they naturally distrust them as political teachers. The most radical democrats in the world are not likely to invite lessons in government from the least democratic of all the allied countries.

About the only role we need expect Japan to play in re-organizing Russia is to take what she wants of eastern Siberia and reorganize it for her own use, as she has done already with Korea.

STEALING FARM LABOR

From all sections of the country come complaints that the farms are being drained of their labor, just when they need it most. It isn't so much the selective draft that is taking the farmer's helpers. It's the factories and mines, particularly the munition factories. The farmers cannot stand the competition. They explain:

"A man on a farm who gets $30 to $50 per month and has practically no expenses, is better off at the end of the year than the city employee. But the lure of $5 or $6 a day is too strong for country people who have no conception of the cost and discomfort of city life."

They are drawn away by thousands through the medium of attractive advertisements for factory labor. The farmers complain that such appeals are unfair to them, as well as harmful to the best interests of the nation. And the farmers are right about it.

Food is more vital than anything else, even fuel or munitions. American farming is more important now than any other American industry except possibly shipbuilding. Nothing should be allowed to interfere with it. There must be some system worked out whereby, through federal and state co-operation, the farms can be properly supplied with labor and made fully productive.

TRUSTWORTHY RECIPES FOR VICTORY BREAD

Thousands of conservation recipes are now in circulation, many of them excellent, but others untested. In some instances even domestic-science experts, cooking conservation dishes in quantities for classes and institute lunch rooms, have converted their ingredients into home recipes by simply reducing all ingredients in proportion a method of adaptation that does not always give good results in the home. With a view to furnishing local food administrators and the public with trustworthy recipes, the Home Economics Section of the Food Administration has tested the following recipes for Victory Bread, which may be circulated as entirely trustworthy:

Victory Bread—Save the Wheat!
Which day is baking day at your house? Try one of these breads next time. Each recipe will make three good-sized loaves.

Hardy and Mould the Bread
doughs with greater care than white bread. If the doughs stay to the hands when kneading down, add more flour at this time.

Always keep the dough at an even warm temperature about 75 degrees.

If you have a good rule for bread, use it, but in place of part of the white flour use one of these other grains—either all or part of the time. If dry yeast is used, a sponge should be made at night with the liquid, the yeast, and a part of the white flour.

Potatoes are Plentiful, Use Them in Bread

This bread is especially valuable because of the body regulating substances which it contains.

Potato Yeast Bread

1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast.
1 cup lukewarm water.
4 teaspoons salt.
3 tablespoons corn syrup.
3½ cups mashed potatoes.
7 cups flour (more or less may be needed.)

Mix as follows: Soften the yeast in the liquid and then add (1) salt, (2) syrup, (3) potato, and enough of the flour to make a stiff dough. Mix and knead thoroughly. Let rise 3½ hours or until double in bulk. Knead or cut down the dough, add the remaining flour, and let rise until double in bulk (about 2½ hours). Shape into loaves. Let rise in pans until double in bulk. Bake 50 minutes to 1 hour.

The Horn of Plenty Brims with Corn

Every time you make three loaves of this bread instead of white bread you save more than a pound of wheat flour.

Cornmeal Yeast Bread

1 quart water.
1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast.
3½ teaspoons salt.
3 tablespoons corn syrup.
1½ cups corn meal.
8 cups flour.

Mix as follows: Soften the yeast in ½ cup of water (lukewarm). Heat the rest to boiling, then stir in the cornmeal. Let it boil up once. Cool, add the salt and syrup, and when lukewarm add the softened yeast. Then add the flour to make a stiff dough. Follow the directions for kneading, raising, and baking given for potato bread.

Oatmeal Yeast Bread

1 quart water.
1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast.
4 teaspoons salt.
3 tablespoons molasses.
3 cups rolled oats.
8 cups flour.

Mix as follows: Soften the yeast in ½ cup of water (lukewarm). Heat the rest to boiling, then stir in the rolled oats. Let it boil up once. Cool, add the salt and syrup, and when lukewarm, add the softened yeast. Then add the flour to make a stiff dough. Follow the directions for kneading, raising, and baking given for potato bread.

Rice Bread is Always Popular

Ask your grocer to get broken rice. It's cheaper and just as good.

Rice Bread

1 quart water.
1 cup rice.
1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast.
½ cup lukewarm water.
4 teaspoons salt.
3 tablespoons corn syrup.
6 cups flour.

Mix as follows: Cook the rice until soft in the one quart of water. Cool until lukewarm, then add (1) the yeast softened in the ½ cup of lukewarm water, (2) the salt, (3) syrup, and (4) the flour. Follow directions for kneading, raising, and baking given for the potato bread.

Barley Makes a Good Loaf

If barley is available in your section of the country use this recipe occasionally. "Variety is the spice of life."

Barley Bread

1 quart water.
1 cup pearl barley.
1 or two cakes compressed yeast.
½ cup lukewarm water.
5 teaspoons salt.
2 tablespoons corn syrup.
7 cups flour.

Mix as follows: Soak the barley in the 1 quart of water over night. Boil in the same water until soft, mash fine, then cool until lukewarm. Add (1) the yeast softened in the ½ cup of water, (2) the salt, (3) syrup, and (4) flour to make a stiff dough. Follow the directions for kneading, raising, and baking given for potato bread.

Did You Ever Hear of Bean Bread?

Here is a new bread. Try it on the family.

1 quart water.

1 cup beans.

1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast.
½ cup lukewarm water.
5 teaspoons salt.
2 tablespoons molasses.
8 cups flour.

Mix as follows: Soak the beans over night. Drain off the water in which they were soaked and cook until soft in the 1 quart of water. Put through a sieve or a potato ricer, cool and when lukewarm, add (1) the yeast softened in the ½ cup of water, (2) the salt, (3) the molasses and (4) the flour to make a stiff dough. Follow directions for kneading, raising, and baking given for potato bread. The beans may be simply mashed and the hulls used in the bread if desired.

Crumbs From Any Woman's Table

What do you do with your stale bread? Do you know that bread dough? Remember this recipe. It's thrifty and it's good.

Bread-Crumbs Bread

1 quart lukewarm water.
1 or 2 cakes compressed yeast.
4 teaspoons salt.
2 tablespoons molasses.
4 cups fine bread crumbs.
8 cups flour.

Mix as follows: Soften the yeast in ½ cup of water. Add to the rest of the liquid (1) the yeast mixture (2) the salt (3) the molasses (4) the crumbs and (5) flour to make a stiff dough. Follow directions for kneading, raising, and baking given for potato bread.

Each of the recipes given here saves from a pound to a pound and a half of wheat.

An ounce of wheat flour saved is a pound of victory earned.

BARB PLACED ON GERMAN BEING TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS OF BLUE GRASS STATE

Frankfort, Ky.—Teaching German in the public schools of Kentucky is prohibited by the terms of the bill of Representative F. C. Vanhoose, of Mingo, which passed the House by the vote of 58 to 18.

Representative Claude M. Thomas urged every member to vote for the bill, saying that he hoped he would never have to hear the German language spoken again.

"Only one language is needed for this world," declared Representative Dill. "I speak for the organized labor of the world," said he, "when I tell you that the only language needed is the one that stands for democracy."

"We do not want to teach the language of soldiers who pierce babies in Belgium with their bayonets," insisted Representative Piper.

"That the bill will disarrange our school system I have no doubt," said Representative Phelps. "Our soldiers will need to speak German when they get to Berlin," he declared.

"No, we won't," interrupted Representative Hudson, a lieutenant in the national army, who is a member of the House. "I'm surprised that any one should want this language taught in the schools, for it will not benefit our soldiers."

Representative Allen said the passage of the bill will disarrange the school curriculum of the state, and that he did not oppose the bill because he did not love the American flag, but because he thought the bill ought not to pass.

Not to be outdone by the House the Senate passed the vagrancy bill as a war measure.

Idleness during the war and for six months thereafter will be prohibited if the bill becomes a law. It provides that every able-bodied man between the ages of 16 and 60, except students during school terms, who fail to engage for at least 36 hours a week in some lawful and recognized business shall be held to be a vagrant and guilty of a misdemeanor. If convicted such person is subject to a fine of not less than $20 nor more than $100, and as a part of punishment ordered to work not exceeding 60 days upon the public roads or streets or upon some other public work.

The bill of Senator Gardner to appropriate $28,000 to be used in suppressing and eradicating communicable diseases in live stock was passed, 25 to 11.

The bill gives the Commissioner of Agriculture, who by virtue of his office is Chairman of the Live Stock Sanitary Board, $1,500 for his services on the sanitary board. It increases the per diem of the members of the State Board of Agriculture from $5 to $10 a day; increases the salary of the State Veterinarian from $2,000 to $3,000 annually, and provides for the appointment of a Deputy State Veterinarian at $2,000 annually.

The State Veterinarian is given wider scope in handling communicable diseases in live stock and the Sanitary Board is authorized to cooperate with the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry in preventing and controlling communicable diseases.

The Sanitary Board is also given discretion in appointing state live stock inspectors, to have same power as county live stock inspectors.

The bill of Senator Perry to empower the State Road Commission to pay a standard of maintenance for highways built with state aid, requiring the counties to maintain them and authorizing the use of that county's apportionment of the road fund to maintain the roads if any county fail to keep them up, passed, 73 to 0.

The House defeated the bill of Senator Perry to regulate the width of tires on vehicles and weight of a load that may be hauled on public highways by the vote of 38 to 48.

The vote defeating the bill was reconsidered and the bill recommitted to be amended to increase the size of the load.

The House passed the bill of Senator Antle to provide for a six-months school term unless funds sufficient to extend it without reducing the salary standard of teachers, and provided for the Auditor to issue warrants for any

FROM COAST TO COAST

A Remarkable Chain of Home Testimony. And Maysville Adds Its Voice to the Grand Chorus of Local Praise.

From north to south, from east to west; in every city, every community; in every state in the Union. Rings out the grateful praise for Doan's Kidney Pills.

50,000 representative people in every walk of life publicly testify to quick relief and lasting results.

And it's all for the benefit of fellow sufferers.

In this grand chorus of local praise Maysville is well represented.

Well-known Maysville people tell of personal experiences. Who can ask for better proof of merit?

Ben P. Fleming, constable of Mason County, 217 East Lee Street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times, my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Mr. Fleming is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Fleming had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

Installation of the state school fund for which is not available. The vote was 60 to 7.

The bill was violently opposed by Representative Leslie P. Jones, who claimed that a reduction of the school term would be disastrous to education of the girls and boys. He stated that a reduction of the school term would not make the teachers more money.

The opposite view was taken by Representative A. J. Oliver, who declared that it would be better to have a well-paid teacher for six months than an inefficient teacher poorly paid for seven months.

The bill, Representative Vance said, only fixed the minimum of six months and that the district could extend the term if so desired.

CITY OF PARKERSBURG

Steamer Strikes Obstruction In River at Ironton, Ohio, at Midnight Thursday—Crew Is Saved—Had $200,000 Cargo.

The steamer City of Parkersburg, loaded at Cincinnati Wednesday with a miscellaneous cargo valued at $200,000, was sunk in 30 feet of water at Ironton, Ohio, when it struck a submerged barge in the channel at midnight Thursday.

The boat, in charge of Captain Orville Noll, Pittsburgh, was bound for Pittsburgh. All of the crew of 25 was safely taken off.

The boat, according to Captain J. F. Cromley, of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Wharves and Co., reached Cincinnati with a heavy cargo Tuesday. It was engaged in packet service, making weekly trips between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh.

Because of the railroad embargo, Captain Cromley says, the cargo was unusually large. He expects some of it to be salvaged.

Captain Noll and Captain Ralph Emerson, of Pittsburgh, bought the boat during the winter. It is valued at $50,000.

Captain Cromley says river men expect to hear of more damage to steamers, because much of the craft sunk when ice moved out recently has not been located.

P.-P. A. FEDERATION

Formed at Forest Avenue School Yesterday Afternoon—Splendid Program Carried Out and Officers Were Elected.

The Forest Avenue School was the scene of an enthusiastic body of earnest women on Friday afternoon when a meeting of the three Parent-Teacher Associations of the city. The occasion was a visit from Miss Gardner, National Organizer of P.-T. As. and the organization of the Council of Federated P.-T. As.

The Forest Avenue School building with its spacious surroundings; the day with its sunshine and bright promises of spring were propitious signs of the plans and interest of the meeting. The parents and teachers of the Forest Avenue School in the most charming manner acted as hostesses. From the moment one entered there were extended hands of greeting and welcome until one was led into the most attractively decorated rooms. Cut flowers and pot plants everywhere again reminded one of the promise of spring and the earth's awakening.

Mrs. Ross, who is our county organizer of P.-T. As., opened the meeting and in her usual efficient manner explained its purpose. The report of the committee on the constitution was made and the constitution adopted. Mrs. Calhoun, as chairman of the Nominating Committee, reported the following names as officers, all of whom were elected: Mrs. Moses, President; Mrs. Caplinger, First Vice President; Mrs. Edwin Matthews, Second Vice President; Mrs. Enos Myall, Secretary and Treasurer. Later at Miss Gardner's suggestion Mrs. Mary Marsh was appointed Corresponding Secretary.

After introducing the officers of the Council, Mrs. Ross handed the meeting over to Mrs. Moses. In a few graceful words Mrs. Moses thanked the body for the honor conferred upon her. A reading by Mrs. Alper followed. Mrs. Alper's naive charm was greatly appreciated by the audience.

Mrs. Barnes then very sweetly sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning." "Does Anybody Want this Little Boy?" was a well chosen number given by Mrs. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell is ever a delight to her hearers. On this occasion she and her art were most pleasing. Mrs. Moses then introduced Miss Gardner. Fresh from the National Educational Meeting at Atlantic City, Miss Gardner was full of enthusiasm for her work and spoke on the growth of the P.-T. As. in importance and influence. At the close of Miss Gardner's talk Mr. Caplinger expressed his pleasure over the result of the meeting. The smile which our Superintendent was wearing bore evidence of the sincerity of his statement. Mr. Caplinger also called attention to the efforts the Chamber of Commerce is putting forth in war gardens and solicited the aid of the P.-T. As.

At this time refreshments were being dispensed and the ever welcome social moment indulged in. The refreshment committee of the three P.-T. As. deserve credit for the graceful and efficient manner in which they served coffee and sandwiches to the hundred and more guests present. The afternoon will long be gratefully remembered by the earnest workers of the local P.-T. As., who extend to all a hearty welcome to meet them at the Council of Federated P.-T. As. to be held on the first Friday in April at the High School building.

Mary O'Rourke was appointed guardian of Eugene and Mary C. O'Rourke, both minors under 14 years of age, and she qualified as such with Charles L. Daly as surety on bond.

COUNTY AGENTS

Open Three-Day Meeting at Lexington—Increase of Food Production Is Object of the Conference.

Lexington, Ky., March 8—District Agent T. H. Collins, of the extension and emergency work of the Department of Agriculture, arrived in this city yesterday and began a three days conference with the county agents to gather plans for increasing food production and extension work in this district. The conference is being held at the college of agriculture of the University of Kentucky.

It is the intention of the agents after the conference to start the different clubs throughout their counties to work immediately. In the last few months pig, corn, calf and culling clubs have been formed among the children of the counties. Every means to stimulate production of food products for coming year among farmers of the different counties will be discussed.

County agents in attendance are: B. F. Boggs, Richmond; E. F. Boyd, Maysville; Elliott Buckner, Versailles; E. H. Faulkner, Williamstown; J. C. Gentry, Harrodsburg; Sam Morgan, London; William H. Rogers, Lancaster; Robert F. Spencer, Berea; William Tye, Barbourville; and W. C. Wilson, Somerset. Emergency agents who are here for the conference are: M. D. Amburgey, Mount Vernon; H. H. Harrison, Stanton; H. E. McSwain, Vanceburg; L. S. Roberts, Lexington.

LIQUID FIRE

Turned U. S. Troops By Hun—Enemy Patrol of Forty Driven Off by American Sentries

London, March 8—A German attack with liquid fire on the American forces northwest of Toul, in the St. Mihiel sector, was repulsed Thursday according to despatches received here today.

On the famous front, it was reported, American sentries drove off an enemy patrol of 40 men.

New York, March 8—Stories of German atrocities upon American soldiers were reported today by patients in the army hospital here, according to the New York World.

The story of a night patrol, in which 12 American "dough boys" were captured, but returned the next night by the Germans, was related by Albert B. Sykes, attached to the Division Sanitary Corps. He said: "Twelve infantrymen went out on a night patrol, and when they failed to return that night it was taken for granted they had been captured. They came back to us the next night."

"When dawn came they were lying out in front of our trenches. Every man had his eyes gouged out, and in several cases the hands and legs were gone."

The government has made no official report of atrocities upon American troops.

CHIEF OF POLICE HAS BEAUTIFUL NEW BADGE

City Council recently voted for the purchase of a new badge for Chief of Police Harry A. Ort. The badge arrived yesterday morning and it is certainly a thing of beauty. It is made of gold and in the center is the seal of the state. The words, "Chief of Police" are in blue enamel and an American eagle is at the top.

SPECIAL SALE OF MONARCH OATS

3 lb. package, regular price 40c; Sale price 30c.
20 oz. package, regular price 15c; Sale price 12c.
Monarch Oats makes a good flour substitute. Try the following recipe:
MONARCH OATS BREAD
2 cups Monarch Oats; 5 cups flour; 2 cups boiling water; 1/2 cup molasses; 1/2 tablespoon salt; 1 tablespoon butter or other fat; 1 cake compressed yeast dissolved in 1/2 cup lukewarm water.
Add boiling water to oats and let stand one hour, add molasses, salt, butter or fat, dissolved yeast cake and flour. Let rise until double in bulk. Knead thoroughly and shape into loaves. Put into greased bread pans, let rise until double in bulk and bake 45 minutes. This recipe makes two loaves.

Flood and Fire

cannot damage your valuable papers if they are placed in a safety deposit box in our fire and burglar proof vault.

We have erected this vault at a considerable outlay of money for the protection of our own money and securities and have made ample provision for the same protection for the public. It may well be called "the community strong box." It provides a place of perfect security and renders the care and anxiety of watching and guarding valuables unnecessary.

Can you afford to take chances on the safety of your valuables when you can rent absolute security for them at less than one cent a day?
